

Bullying Prevention Resource Center

A collaboration between The Peace Center, County Commissioners, District Attorney's office, and all Bucks County school superintendents to address bullying and foster safe schools and communities

Our Programs:

Prevention

Respecting Me, Respecting You

Bullying Prevention in Elementary Schools

Girls Unlimited

Relational Aggression Program for 7th Grade Girls

Intervention

Restorative Circles

School-based interventions to help students resolve conflict

Peace Army

Training high school students to interrupt bullying and resolve conflicts

Bullying Prevention Support Circles for Kids and Families

Bullying Prevention Support Circles are co-led and co-created by young people who have experienced bullying. Adult facilitators work with parents while students engage in fun activities to build self-esteem and develop coping skills.

Locations: Bristol * Buckingham * Langhorne * Quakertown

To register for a support circle call The Peace Center at 215-750-7220 ext 13

Visit our Armstrong Wiki Page! guidancenewsthatyoucanuse.wikispaces.com/The+Peace+Center

